August 18, 2004

Today's Program: Steve Buss, EAA – Young Eagles Program

Vocational Service

Joining us today, Amy Sullivan, Nicole Purtell, Andrew Hilmer and Mary Johnson the last of this years scholarship recipients. Please give our guests and families a warm Southwest Rotary welcome!

Back to School Fair: Again, a great success this year. Thank you to all individual club members for their generous donations as well as the club as a whole. We again helped to make this excellent community service happen. Special thanks to all who volunteered, Meredith Scheuermann for organizing the Used Tennis Shoe Program, Jim Chitwood and staff for cleaning and delivering the shoes! This is truly a giving club! Thanks again to everyone.

International Service

Exchange students: Our new inbound student arrived in Oshkosh from Okinawa Japan on August 14th her name is May Umi Tau and her first host family is John & Julie Konig. Please make her feel welcome.

Club Service

We are still in need of volunteers to work Waterfest, this Thursday, August 19th. Please see signup sheets on the tables or contact Bill Wresch at 424-4151 or wresch@uwosh.edu.

Attention all Financial Institution members!

Doug is taking quotes on our clubs credit card processing. Submit your written bids to Doug by September 1st.

Note: Our club treasurer, Doug Seefeld will be unavailable the entire month of August. If there is an immediate need for a check please see Rick Vanderloop, otherwise please hold any requests until after September 1st.

Pictures from recent events can be seen on our website; choose "What's new" click on changing of the guard. Thanks Paul for being such a great photographer!!!

The Four Way Test

By Herbert I. Taylor – Chicago – 1932
Of the things we think, say or do:

First: Is it the truth?

Second: Is it fair to all concerned?

Third: Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Fourth: Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
