Chad Weston-Gardner – “How Domestic Violence Affects Your Workplace”

Rotary News & Notes News from last week:

Craig announced that this is National Clown Week, and is also National Psychic Week (although we already knew that!).

Thanks to all the Rotarians that came to the EAA Flying Rotarians picnic last week – Hoot Gibson was an amazing speaker!

Thanks also to the Rotarians who helped out with the second annual Oshkosh National Night Out. Just a reminder that SW Rotary also acted as a financial sponsor of the event.

Craig urged all of us to take a look at this month's Rotarian Magazine – see page 55 for a great article on Rotary.

Scholarship awardees joined us today to accept their checks. Congratulations to all of our scholarship winners this year, and best of luck with your continuing education.

We are still looking for paddlers for our Dragonboat Team. The third annual Dragonboat Festival will be held on Saturday, September 20th. See Nicole Allie if you are interested – we'll hold our paddler seats for SW Rotary members first, then open it up to family members.

Tom Hallquist had a final call for Wicked tickets – there are 20 seats left.

Bryan Hockstein is in need of Greeters – contact him to help out.

Fact or Fiction?

Member: Ken Friedman

1. I learned wind surfing while living in El Paso.
2. I rear-ended a city bus on a snowy night in Seattle.
3. I broke my leg skiing in Montana.

The Four Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
