Rotary News & Notes Announcements from Craig

- On Oct. 8, the Wisconsin Supreme Court Justices will be presenting at our Rotary meeting, thanks to Scott Woldt. Our meeting that day will be at the EAA Museum (we secured the facility at no charge, thanks to Elissa Lines). We have invited the Downtown and Morning Clubs as well, but first seating will go to our club members and guests. Please sign up to attend using the sheets out on the tables. We will also have a Roundtable that day, but don't miss this.
- Last week we were at the United Way Campaign Kickoff – thanks to everyone who attended, and thanks to Rick Vanderloop for the great lunch!

Other Announcements

Mike Scott announced that Barb Herzog is heading up Scrabble for Literacy and we have decided to sponsor a team. We are looking for four SW Rotarians to make up our team – see Mike or Amy Montgomery for more information.

Vicki Beltran is working on putting together a Rotary golf outing – shoot her an email by next week if you are interested, and from those interested she'll coordinate a date and time that work best.

Doug Seefeldt, Dragonboat Captain, announced that the Southwest Stokers will be racing in their first heat at 8:12. Maps are on the tables for members who want to stop out and cheer us on.

Ken Friedman thanked the club for the success of Shared Harvest thus far. With grant funds, Ken has purchased a Southwest Rotary banner and tent to use at the Farm Market. Any Rotarians who can help out collecting and distributing fresh produce on Tuesday mornings should give Ken a call. We are in need of larger vehicles to distribute the produce as donations have been great. Members who have gardens can bring their excess produce to our booth at the Farm Market at Festival Foods or to Rotary meetings. The mission of this project is to make locally-grown produce available to food pantries and meal programs in our community.

We enjoyed some humor from Dick Ames. Dick, the females at the meeting say a special "thank you" for the chocolate. (You had to be there...)

Membership Report

Submitted by Secretary Jerry Krueger

This report is based upon membership activity from July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008.

Membership on July 1, 2007 was 117. On June 30, 2008 it was 110. (Current membership is 111, our goal is 125.)

Last year, 12 members did not meet the 50% attendance requirement.

We had 13 new members join the club and 18 members left the club. One member became an "Honorary Member" as of July 1, 2008.

Two members missed only two meetings last year: Kathy Hanson and Mark Stockli.

We had 17 members with perfect attendance (number in parentheses indicates consecutive years of perfect attendance):

Rotary Recipes

Southwest Stroker Spread (from Jim Chitwood)

1. At the store, buy a jar of Jalepeno Jelly and two squares of cream cheese.
2. Go home.
3. Mix them together.
4. Serve with crackers to your favorite Dragonboat Team.

This spread was a big hit at the Rotary Dragonboat tent. Thanks, Jim!

The Southwest Stokers had a great day. More photos next week!!

The Four Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
