News and Notes

Announcements

Tom Stephany thanked the club for all the support he has received over the past week with his recent surgery. The support, thoughts and prayers are very appreciated!

Glenn Nelson introduced one of our scholarship awardees from Lourdes High School.

Bill Thimke announced that his trip to Canada to purchase the new soy cow (ASC 50). He was accompanied by Mel's husband, Jason, who is producing a documentary on the project. More to come!

Ken Friedman announced that Shared Harvest has begun this season. We are sharing the volunteer work with the Morning and Downtown Clubs. Shared Harvest has been receiving donations already. New this year – “Adopt A Tomato” program for families to adopt a plant and donate the fruit to Shared Harvest. Sign up to adopt your own Baby Tomato.

Karen Fredrick announced that the annual Boat Trip sign up sheets are on the tables – don't miss the fun!

Tom Shepeck announced that the annual EAA Flying Rotarians Picnic will be July 29th at the EAA pavilion. We'll be having a speaker from the flying missionary organization who promises to be interesting. Also, Carlitos left yesterday – he finished his last week in America with a trip to Great America.

Tom Weber is heading up our flag distribution at the Fourth of July parade again this year. This is a great family activity – we walk ahead of the parade and hand out flags to the crowd. Talk to your family and sign up! The parade starts at 9am, we'll meet around 8:30 downtown.

Kent Mosebach is lining up members to do the invocations for the next year – get in touch with him if you're interested.

Fact or Fiction

Member: Craig Burnett

1. My future mother-in-law went along when my future wife and I went out on our first date.
2. I was a violinist in my high school's symphony.
3. My wife and I spent several nights of our honeymoon sleeping on the ground in a canvas A-frame tent listening to the sounds of an adult male lion roaming free within 200 yards of the tent.

The Four Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
