Rotary News & Notes Announcements

Changing of the Guard

The annual Changing of the Guard ceremony for Oshkosh Southwest Rotary Club will be held tonight at the Fin 'N' Feather in Winneconne. Thank you to everyone who served in a leadership position this past year! And – good luck all the new leadership who will use that momentum to guide us to even bigger and better things in the coming year.

Fourth of July Parade

Southwest Rotarians will once again lead the annual Fourth of July parade by handing out American flags through a partnership with Oshkosh Corporation. Those interested in walking the route should meet on Ceape Avenue, just west of the railroad tracks at 8:30 a.m. on July 4 (the parade starts at 9 a.m.). See Tom Weber or Kelly Mundell for more details.

Boat Outing

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, July 21 for the club's annual boat outing. Skippers are needed! If interested contact Jacci Belter and let her know how many passengers you can handle. The "tour" will start and end at Fratello's Restaurant. Sign-up sheets will be on your lunch tables in the coming weeks.

Shared Harvest

For the second year Rotarian Ken Friedman is helping stock local food pantries through the Shared Harvest Program. Volunteers are needed to work the Shared Harvest booth at the Saturday Farm Market at Oshkosh City Hall. Volunteers are needed to find homes for the "adopt a tomato" program and to encourage donations of fresh produce for food pantries. See Ken for more information.

Live at Lunch

Thanks to everyone who came out to Live at Lunch last week. It was a nice way to spend the afternoon in downtown Oshkosh.

Thanks for the Memories Nancy Leipzig

Well, I must say that Craig told me it would go fast.... And it has. This year as your president it has been remarkable and truly an honor. Southwest Rotary is an amazing club, and so much of what we do helps so many people. They may never know who we are. And that's okay, because we hope that they will pay it forward". So what we do continues to give.

We are blessed to be in the position to be able to give, to help, and to think beyond ourselves. We don't believe that someone "owes" us because we help them. We simply hope that our help empowers them to help others. Kind of like the gift that keeps giving.

Thanks for allowing me to venture off into a new position in my career and be away from you on so many occasions. On days when I wasn't here, my thoughts were with you.

A very special thanks to my "Parade of Presidents" who covered for me and, I hope, enjoyed ringing the bell once again. There is no doubt that this club supports everyone, including the person at the front of the room.

A very special thanks to Craig Burnett who assured me on so very many occasions that everything would be okay. And... reassured me that contentious board meetings are a good thing.

Thank you, Southwest, for your confidence in me. My very best to Kris – I know you'll be great!

The Four Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
