Battle on Bago '12

This year's Battle on Bago ice fishing tournament raised about $110,000 for Oshkosh Southwest Rotary Club. Those funds will be used to support youth and conservation efforts in Wisconsin, youth fishing programs, fishing clubs, scholarships for college students and our Rotary club.

More than 2,600 people took part in the fishing tournament, hundreds more enjoyed a Friday night fish fry, a Saturday Prime Rib dinner and live music both nights.

In just five years, Battle on Bago has raised more than $286,000!

For details on who won fishing and/or raffle prizes, visit:

Congratulations to everyone involved from the organizers to the volunteers. This is truly an event worthy of international attention.

Fact or Fiction?

Each week, we'll look at three "facts" about one of our club members. Two of them are true and one of them is not. Your job is to figure out which one does not pass the Four Way Test. Thank you to the members who have already submitted their "facts" – if you haven't please send them to Colleen Merrill, merrillc@uwosh.edu.

Today's contestant is...

John Hobbins

- 1) "I would rather be in Italy"
- 2) "My favorite language is Hebrew"
- 3) "I am a Buddhist"

Rotary District 6270 Conference

The annual Rotary District 6270 Conference, "An International Affair," will be held at the Heidel House Resort and Conference Center in Green Lake from April 27 to 29.

The conference is hosted by District Governor Nancy Rhodes and The Rotary Club of West Allis.

Early Bird Registration ($55 per person) ends on March 15 (cost goes up $10 after March 15). New Rotarians (since July 1, 2011) attending their first district conference can register at the $55 price at any time. Spouses and guests cost $20 per person. Sign up today at www.Rotary6270.org.

You must make your own room reservations directly with the Heidel House. Rooms will be held until March 26 at a rate of $115 per night. Contact the Heidel House Resort at 800-444-2812.

The conference will feature sessions on African storytelling, global health, water and sanitation, and keynote presentations by Amy Currin of Humanitarian Landmine Clearance, PDG Doug Vincent speaking on ways individual Rotarians have made a positive difference in our world, and Kobi & Fakhira, who are working in the Israeli-Palestinian peace movement.

Group Study Exchange Teams (both outgoing and the incoming Australian team) will lead presentations and author Robert Grede will talk about his historic Civil War book.

Returning will be the House of Friendship showcasing service projects by various clubs in our district.

New this year, our conference will have a Service Project. On Friday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. join Rotarians to help clean up Zobel Park in Green Lake.

Make sure to sign up for the annual Celebrate Rotary Golf Outing. It will be held on Friday, April 27 at Lawsonia Links, one of Wisconsin's oldest and best rated golf courses. A box lunch is included with registration. The shotgun start will begin at 11:30 a.m. Golfers will return to the Heidel House by 4:30 p.m. Cost is $65 per person and space is limited to 72 golfers. Registration deadline for the golf outing is March 30.

There will also be a Sock Hop on Friday night – so bring your poodle skirts and letter sweaters as you dance the night away to live music by The Doo-Wop Daddies.

The Four Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
