Rotary News & Notes Announcements:

Battle on the Bago Recap

Thanks to everyone who volunteered for and came out to Battle on the Bago! As always, it was a great time working to raise money for kids in conservation clubs.

Novel Pairings

Last week we had the pleasure of listening to staff from the Oshkosh Public Library speak to us about the many things they're doing including trying to reach the community in new ways.

Novel Pairings is a great way for us to connect with the library and other book lovers. The event will take place Thursday, March 3rd (tomorrow) beginning at 6:30pm at the library.

Admission is $10 and includes wine, hors d'oeuvres and treats. You may also have the chance to win some prizes.

Annual PALS Picnic

Don't forget to mark your calendars for June 1st so that you can attend the annual PALS picnic at Roosevelt Elementary School. You can plan to attend the picnic as a guest or plan to help out by volunteering. Some of the volunteer options are: set up, cooking, serving and clean up. Why not plan to spend your typical Wednesday meeting at Roosevelt visiting with the kids and volunteering while enjoying the weather. Contact Marcus Butts for more information.

Dancing for Little Stars

As stated in previous HUB newsletters, SW Rotary will be participating in Parent Connection's final Dancing for Little Stars this year in a GREASE-themed performance. We have 13 dancers already signed up and practice begins next week. If you're still interested in joining the team please contact Jim Chitwood. Meanwhile, if you (much like me) prefer observing to performing, don't forget to purchase tickets to the event! The event will take place Friday April, 8th at 6:30 at the Oshkosh Convention Center.

The Four Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
