

TODAY'S PRESENTATION:

Growing Up With Chris Farley
Tom Farley

Today's Presentation

Today we welcome Tom Farley, via Zoom.

Tom will talk about growing up, and having to share a bedroom with Chris. He will also speak about his years of running the Chris Farley Foundation, and writing the New York Times bestselling biography ("The Chris Farley Show") where he talked about Chris' struggles with addiction. Mostly he will talk about a number of lessons Chris taught him. Lessons that he only began to see after experiencing a year of pandemics and isolation and lessons that can help all of us in our careers and personal lives - particularly as we start to emerge from this life-altering Covid environment.

Tom Farley grew up in Madison, WI and graduated from Georgetown University with a degree in Marketing. He began his career in banking and finance, living and working in the New York City area. From 1999 to 2012, he ran The Chris Farley Foundation, a nationally recognized non-profit dedicated to substance abuse prevention. Like his brother, Tom was successful in opening the "eyes and ears" of youth audiences through the powerful and effective use of humor. In 2008 he wrote "The Chris Farley Show", a New York Time bestselling biography of his late brother, the actor and comedian Chris Farley. He has been interviewed on The Today Show, Good Morning America, Larry King Live, Fox News and The View. He has also been featured in People Magazine, USA Today and several national and regional newspapers and publications. Today Tom is a motivational speaker, delivering messages on prevention and recovery, and the use of Improv as a tool to foster better communications in business. Tom lives in Madison, WI.
