

TODAY'S PRESENTATION:

Dr Joseph Scheivert
UWO Titan Thunder Band

Today's Presentation

Chancellor Andy Leavitt will introduce

Dr Joseph Scheivert, our Director of Athletic Bands.

It has been several decades since the university has had a marching band. Our presenters will discuss the evolution of starting a university marching band from scratch.

Scheivert joined the university during the summer of 2021 to design and build the Titan Thunder and Bolt Bands. He had previously served as assistant director of bands at Kennesaw State University in Georgia and interim associate director bands at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Dr. Scheivert earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in music education from Pennsylvania State University. He earned his doctorate in musical arts from the University of Iowa, where he served as graduate teaching assistant for University Bands, conducted concert ensembles, led the Iowa Pep Band and served as a drill writer, arranger and instructor of the Hawkeye Band. Dr. Scheivert's dissertation research, focused on policies and procedures developed by the Big Ten Conference in response to issues such as social media use, copyright and hazing.

Allison Shaw, music department chair stated, "Dr. Scheivert is a gifted teacher and an inspiring educator who will bring great distinction to our program and the new marching band at UWO". The Bolt Band brought high quality "pep band" entertainment during the 2021-2022 men's and woman's basketball season.

The Titan Thunder Band will first perform during UW Oshkosh Homecoming on Saturday, October 22, 2022, at Titan Stadium.

Chancellor Leavitt will also provide other fine arts opportunities offered by the university for the fall semester.

Thank you Dr. Scheivert!
