TODAY'S PRESENTATION:

Human Trafficking / Nomi Network
Sean Tiernan

Today's Presentation

Today we welcome Sean Tiernan.

My career started in educational sales over 20 years ago and I've been lucky enough to work for some outstanding, groundbreaking companies. In 2018 I fell in love with Rawhide Youth Services, the mission and becoming a professional Fundraiser, where I served for over 4 years. In the Fall of 2023, I decided to fundraise for, and put an end to, Human Trafficking; I currently serve with a global organization called Nomi Network where an emphasis is placed on empowerment & workforce development programs.

When I'm not talking with donors, you can find me with my family on adventures and taking pictures of something somewhere. Outside of Nomi Network and family, I can usually be seen reading about ocean conservation, politics, unlikely superheroes and as of late, the importance of public land in our country. The focus of my talk will be placing a spotlight on the Nomi Network of 2023 and the impact we will have in our global community over the next few decades. I'll touch on our history but will mainly focus on today and the plans for tomorrow, including our goal to eliminate human trafficking in our lifetime. We'll spend some time talking about exactly what Nomi Network is, who we serve, and how we depend on the community's help to accomplish our mission.

Thank you, Sean!

YAD SDRWK CAB "Celebrating" February 1

LET'S HAVE SOME FUN WITH THIS ON FEBRUARY 1.

U.S. National Backward Day is celebrated on January 31,
encouraging us to do things oppositely. It's a time to take a look at our actions to see how reversing them can be effective and fun at the same time.

Backwards Day was created by two women,
Sarah Nicole Miller and Megan Emily Scott,
who came up with the idea while on a farm.
They were milking cows, thinking about arts and crafts when the initial idea came to them.
The two women came up with the rules of and created it on January 29, 1961.
