

TODAY'S PRESENTATION:
FVTC E-Seed Express
Carmen Leal

Today's Presentation

Today we welcome Rotarian Carmen Leal, Adjunct Professor with Fox Valley Technical College Venture Center. Carmen will be an E-seed™ instructor at the Oshkosh campus.

E-Seed provides practical tools to prepare a business plan that can be applied immediately start-up or existing businesses. During ten-week sessions, people gain awareness and expand their entrepreneurial and small business skills with a hands-on and interactive curriculum. Students receive one-on-one support and coaching inside and outside of each session. Successful, experienced, small business owners are a key component as they serve as guest expert speakers.

Tanner Ochowicz from The Turquoise Door will share a bit about his business and why he is investing in E-Seed Express.

The next Oshkosh E-Seed Express Entrepreneur class with a maximum enrollment of fifteen students will run from September 11 through November 13 from 5:30 pm – 8:30 pm. Grants are available through AARP for anyone over fifty interested in starting or growing their business.
