

TODAY'S PRESENTATION:
Oshkosh High/West Veterans' Honor Wall
Gary E. Ross

Today's Presentation

Gary E. Ross is the Lead Researcher for the Oshkosh High/West Veterans' Honor Hall. He is a graduate of Oshkosh

High School, a US Air Force Veteran, a Veteran of the Oshkosh Fire Dept and a Cancer Survivor.

The Oshkosh High/West Veterans' Honor Hall is a modern Oshkosh "Historic Landmark" that is located in a main hallway at Oshkosh West High School. The landmark currently recognizes 5,500+ alumni who served our community, state, and country in one of the branches of the armed services. Each veteran has a name plaque that shares their service information. Ranging from 1872 to present.

"Every project starts with an idea." He will discuss the idea behind this project that was started by Honor Hall Curator Andrew Shaller.

Gary will discuss how he became involved with the project, some of his research and also some of the problems with the research, the future of the project and a couple of interesting stories.
