

TODAY'S PRESENTATION:
Aaron Sadoff
The Happiness Advantage/Orange Frog

Today's Presentation

Two Arrows, A tree in the Forrest, The Cat Paradox, and Two High Jumpers - Aaron will address these important subjects, sharing some insight on supporting a change in mindset from Work Life Balance to Work Life Choice.

From the website: <https://edcircuit.com/happiness-greatest-technology>:

"Aaron Sadoff was born in 1971 in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. He is a veteran of the United States Army, a graduate of UW-Madison and Marian (Wisconsin) University, and has dedicated 20 years to the field of education as a teacher, principal and superintendent and has a great family.

His passion is developing, leading and sustaining a culture of happiness in the School District of North Fond du Lac so they can recruit, retain and reward a world-class staff while working to prepare all students to be career, college, and life ready. He believes the School District of North Fond du Lac is an example of how the science of happiness and positive psychology can revolutionize the way that organizations are working to best impact success of students, staff and the community."

Aaron Sadoff did a TED Talk a few years ago in Fond du lac. The title of the talk is "Happiness is the Greatest Technology" and you can view it on YouTube here: <https://youtu.be/BaBb0h84KpY>
