

TODAY'S PRESENTATION:

Julie Conrad-Peters Long Range Facilities Planning for the Oshkosh School District

Today's Presentation

Julie Conrad-Peters currently serves as the Oshkosh Area School District's assistant superintendent of operations. Conrad served as the director of curriculum and assessment for over 11 years and has served the Oshkosh school district and community for over 31 years. She began her educational career as a science teacher at Oshkosh West High School before becoming a curriculum support specialist for the OASD. In 2007, Conrad became an assistant principal at Oshkosh West and in 2010, began leading Webster Stanley Middle School as principal before assuming a district leadership role in 2012. Conrad received a Bachelor of Science in Education from Auburn University, a Master of Arts in Educational Leadership from Marian University, and received her Superintendent Licensure from the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh.

Julie is a transformative leader whose growth mindset has positively impacted countless learners and educators," said OASD Superintendent of Schools Dr. Bryan Davis. "Beyond her exceptional qualifications and expertise, Julie's connectedness and deep understanding of our school district and community provides us with the stability to strategically move forward while continuing to inspire us to do and be better for the success of our students."

Conrad is known for her strong leadership and commitment to improving educational experiences for all students. She is a results-oriented, equity-driven educational leader. She has an innate ability to build partnerships and effective systems that enhance learning for all students. Conrad's areas of expertise include standards-based learning, instruction and assessment, strategic planning and metrics, data-driven school improvement planning, and continuous improvement tools and processes. As assistant superintendent of operations, Conrad oversees strategic planning, facilities planning, enrollment, and staffing in the OASD, as well as other key functions of the district.

Conrad has one son who graduated from Oshkosh North High School in 2015, a sassy yorkie, and a wonderful husband--Rick Peters.
