Today's Presentation

Randy Domer,
Local Author

Randy Domer is an Oshkosh native with an enthusiastic interest in local history. His works include Yesterday In Oshkosh...My Hometown,

Oshkosh: Land of Lakeflies, Bubblers and Squeaky Cheese, We Shall Never Pass This Way Again, and It Seems Like Only Yesterday.

Randy's strong interest in local history is fueled by his presence on the Board of Directors for the Winnebago County Historical & Archaeological Society, the Oshkosh Public Museum, and the Butte des Morts Historical Preservation Society. He also is a regular contributor to local newspapers.

ROTARY: THE WAY WE LEAD
A FREE LEADERSHIP RETREAT FOR ALL MEMBERS OF ROTARY

Date: Saturday, September 13, 2025
Time: 8:00 AM - 3:30 PM

Location: Milwaukee Area Technical College (MATC) - Mequon
(5555 West Highland Road, Mequon)

What does it mean to lead - with presence, with purpose, and in partnership, beyond just holding a title?

Rotary: The Way We Lead invites you to explore that question and emerge with new tools, deeper insights, and fresh inspiration for the road ahead.

This free, one-day professional development retreat is open to all members of Rotary - whether you're new to leadership or have years of experience. Together, we'll explore the human side of leadership - emotional intelligence, communication, adaptability, and innovation - alongside practical Rotary skills that elevate your club's impact and engagement.

What You Can Expect?

- 20 breakout sessions tailored to key leadership and Rotary topics
- Interactive workshops on empathy, change leadership, storytelling, public speaking, and more
- Networking opportunities through coffee chats, lunch discussions, and group sessions
- A retreat experience grounded in Rotary's Action Plan - focused on increasing impact, expanding reach, enhancing engagement, and adapting for the future

From morning coffee to afternoon workshops, The Way We Lead offers more than training - it's a mindset reset, designed to help you lead with clarity, confidence, and purpose.

Because leadership is not just what we do - it's how we show up.

Join Us!

This is your opportunity to connect with Rotarians from across District 6270, build your skills, and grow your impact. Free for all members of Rotary.
