Today's Presentation

Dean Smith
Chief of Police

2025 marks Chief Dean Smith's tenth year as the Chief of Police for the Oshkosh Police Department. Over the course of this past decade, Chief Smith has focused on fostering exceptional partnerships and advancing community policing.

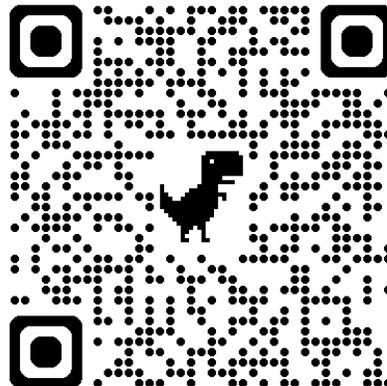

Prior to joining the Oshkosh Police Department, Chief Smith served with the Suffolk (VA) Police Department for 27 years, including over 16 years as a command level officer.

The Fight Against Polio

In 1985, Rotary International launched PolioPlus, the first and largest internationally coordinated private sector support of a public health initiative. The program has raised in total more than $2.1 BILLION to help combat the disease, and polio has been almost entirely eradicated in all but two countries (Afghanistan and Pakistan).

Oshkosh Southwest Rotary has a new club goal of contributing $1,500 to the PolioPlus Fund. Contributions can be made via this QR code.
