Today's Presentation

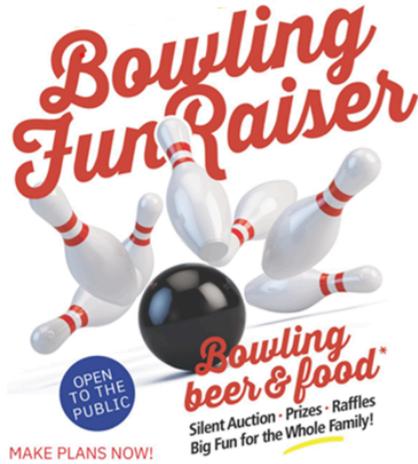

Molly Smiltneek,
World Relief
Wisconsin

World Relief Wisconsin works alongside refugees and other immigrants in vulnerable situations as they rebuild their lives in the United States. In the last 12 years, World Relief has welcomed over 1,500 immigrants and refugees into the Fox Valley region. The organization's offices in Appleton and Oshkosh offer refugee resettlement services, extended case management, immigration legal services, employment services and English education classes.

As Immigration Legal Services Manager for World Relief, Molly assists clients with a variety of services such as green cards, permanent residence, family reunification, citizenship, and travel documents.
