Today's Presentation

Chris Henry,
M*A*S*H:
Flying the Wounded (EAA)

Chris Henry is the EAA Aviation Museum Director. He has spent the last 13 years at EAA working to preserve the people stories in aviation's rich history. Before that he served as an air traffic controller and as a medical helicopter dispatcher. He has been working in aviation museums since he was 12 years old.

In M*A*S*H-Flying the Wounded, Chris speaks about the real-life saving units that served in Korea, and the Television show that helped bring their legacy to our living rooms.
